Frozen to the spot in a mixed state of fear and wonder, Alice gazed at the strange happenings around her.

She felt dazed, as if stuck in some terrible dream.

Cards, some small and some large, darted to and fro in front of her eyes, dancing menacingly as if controlled by an invisible threat, as if they had a mind of their own.

Confused yet mesmerised, Alice began to make her way through the mysterious forest...

Can you continue the story? Is someone/something controlling the cards? Will Alice encounter anything else in the forest?
Question time!

- What thoughts do you think are going through Alice’s head?
- Is this a dream or reality?
- Have you ever had a dream that you were convinced was real?
- When we are asleep, what are our brains doing?
Perfect picture!

Imagine something else strange is lurking in the forest. Draw or describe what you have imagined. It could be friendly or hostile!
Sick sentences!

Which ending would make this word an adverb?

- quick
- quickness quickest quicker quickly quicken

Can you use adverbs in your writing today?

Perhaps you could use adverbs to show the possibility of something happening e.g. perhaps, surely, possibly, maybe.

Perhaps she would find other people soon.
Sick sentences!

These sentences are ‘sick’ and need help to get better. Can you help? Could you add an adverb?

- Alice wore a dress.
- She walked through the forest.