Shrouded in a veil of sea mist, the ghostly galleon swept through the black ocean waves. One minute you saw her, the next you didn’t. She was like no other ship. Blink, and you missed her...
Sentence challenge!

- A preposition is a word that shows the relationship between one thing and another.
- It may tell you where a thing is in relation to something else. E.g. The ghost ship can be seen through the fog.
- It may tell you when something is in relation to another event. e.g. The ship cannot be seen until after midnight.
- Can you find any prepositions in my writing? Can you find any prepositions in your writing? Can you write 3 sentences that contain prepositions?
Question time!

- What is it that is so strange about the ship?
- Who do you think the crew are?
- How old do you think the ship is?
- What do you think the number 13 on the flag means?
- What do you think the bell is used for?
- Is there anything else strange that you notice about the picture?
Sick sentences!

These sentences are ‘sick’ and need help to get better. Can you help?

- The ship went through the water. Fog and mist were all around her sails. The crew looked out.
Perfect picture!

Think about what the captain of the ship looks like. Can you draw or describe what you have imagined?

Image by: Alexander Jansson