Question time!

- What are the first ten things you see outside the nearest window? Try to write down five big things and five small things.
- What is moving outside?
- What is not moving outside?
- What is the most exciting thing you can see through the window?
- What is the brightest thing you can see?
- What is the dullest thing you can see?
- What is at the centre of this view?
- What is at the edge of this view?
- What can your friends see?
- Is there something only you can see? Describe it!
Story starter!

Use one of these sentences to start your story:

- When I look out my window I feel...
- The view from my window...
- In the shade I see...
- There is a ... moving outside and...

Image by: First Story, National Writing Day
Perfect picture!

Choose one of the sentences you finished above and draw it!